

CARBONDALE DEPARTMENT.

The Scranton Tribune has opened a Branch Office in Carbondale and will print a daily edition devoted to the interests of the city, the aim being to supply Carbondale with a daily morning paper, containing all the news of the Pioneer City. Communications of a news nature, personal and all items for publication may be left at the new offices in the Burke Building, or may be sent by mail or phone. E. L. Hatfield, manager of the Carbondale edition, will be pleased to receive callers seeking information or desirous of imparting it.

SUNDAY AT THE CHURCHES.

First Congregational.
At the First Congregational church tomorrow, Rev. M. C. Elliott, the pastor, speaks at both services. Morning theme, "The Increase of the Church." Evening topic, "Down; Then Up," the second in the series of sermons on "Great Men." At the evening service there will be a half hour of song by an augmented choir. Mr. H. F. Clark will sing a baritone solo, and Mr. B. E. Gardner will render a violin solo for the offertory. The public is invited.

Tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock the First Congregational Sunday school will observe its second bi-annual. A special program is being arranged for the occasion. Last Sunday the school was doubled, and Mr. Elliott has asked for an increase of thirty for tomorrow. The excellent music is one of the features of the Congregational Sunday school.

Trinity Protestant Episcopal.
Rev. R. A. Sawyer, rector. The following services will be held in Trinity church tomorrow: Holy communion and sermon, 10:30 a. m.; Sunday school at 12 o'clock; evening prayer and sermon at 7:30 p. m. The offering at the morning service will be for the domestic missions. Ladies' Aid society, Wednesday, 3 p. m.; Trinity Guild, Tuesday, 7:30 p. m.

First Presbyterian.
North church street, near Salem avenue. Rev. Charles Lee, pastor; residence, 66 North church street. Sunday services, 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.; Sunday school, 12 m.; Young People's Christian Endeavor, 6:30 p. m.; weekly prayer meeting, Thursday evening, 7:30 p. m.

Second Presbyterian.
At the Second Presbyterian church the Rev. T. M. Higgins will preach in the afternoon, at the close of the Sunday school services.

Welsh Presbyterian.
South church street, corner Ninth avenue. Sunday services, 10:30 a. m. and 6 p. m.; Sunday school, 2 p. m.; mid-week services, Tuesday, 7:30 p. m. The Rev. William E. Morgan, of Hyde Park, will preach in the Welsh language morning and evening. After the morning service there will be communion and afterwards Sunday school. All the Welsh people of this section are cordially invited. Mr. Morgan is an able speaker.

Baptist.
Berean Baptist church, corner Lincoln avenue and North church street. Rev. H. J. Whalen, D. D., pastor, residence, 33 Lincoln avenue. Sunday services, 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.; mid-week services, Thursday, 7:30 p. m. Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor meets Sunday on Sunday evening, Junior Society Christian Endeavor meets Sunday, 3:30 p. m.; Sunday school at 12 m.

Methodist.
First Methodist, North church street, near Salem avenue. Rev. A. F. Chaffee, pastor; residence, 76 Terrace street. Sunday services, 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.; Sunday school, 12 m.; Epworth League, 6:30 p. m.; prayer meetings, Thursday evening, 7:30. On Sunday morning, the pastor will preach. In the evening there will be revival services.

Evangelical Lutheran.
First Evangelical Lutheran (St. Paul's church)—South church street; Rev. F. Ehinger, pastor. Twenty-third Sunday in Trinity. Sabbath school, 9:30 a. m.; preaching services, 10:30 a. m.; subject of the sermon, "Hold That Fast Which Thou Hast That No Man Take Thy Crown." Revelations II: 2. Evening services, 7:30 p. m.; practicing sons in German and English.

Roman Catholic.
Church of St. Rose de Lima—North church street, opposite Park place. Rev. Thomas F. Coffey, rector; residence, 6 North church street. Assistants, Rev. John Dixon and Rev. John J. Griffin. Sunday services: First mass, 7 a. m.; second mass, 8 a. m.; third mass, 9 a. m.

"GRIP"
A swollen face, the characteristic epidemic symptom of Cold or

GRIP

The doctors say this year that epidemic Grip has taken on a new phase, the first symptom being a puffing up of one side of the face, extending even to the closing of the eye, it is accompanied by neuralgic pains and by most of the old known symptoms of Influenza, Catarrh, pains and soreness in the Head and Chest, Cough and Sore Throat, General Prostration and Fever. It meets the epidemic condition and cuts it short promptly. If it should not yield at once, alternate with Specific No. 2.

Dr. Humphreys' Manual on the care and treatment of the sick in all ailments (especially children) mailed free. Humphreys' Homeopathic Medicine Co., Cor. William & John Sts., New York.

THE OLDEST RESIDENT DEAD.

Mrs. Phoebe Decker Passes Away in Her Ninety-Ninth Year.

Mrs. Cornelius Decker, conceded to be the oldest resident of the Pioneer City, died yesterday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Sarah Griggs, at the corner of Park street and Tenth avenue.

Mrs. Decker was born in New York state in 1802, which made her age at the time of her death ninety-eight years. With her husband, who died on June 19, 1856, aged fifty-six years, Mrs. Decker came to Carbondale in 1829, and had lived in Carbondale ever since. Their mode of travel from New York city was by way of the old Delaware and Hudson canal, and the route on the first boat that ever traversed this route.

Mr. Decker was by trade a sawyer and he, during his residence of thirty-seven years in Carbondale, followed this manner of earning a livelihood. Mr. and Mrs. Decker were the parents of fourteen children, five of whom survive, as follows: Mrs. Sarah F. Griggs, of Carbondale; John and Ernest Decker, of Scranton; Hiram Decker, of Canastota, N. Y., and Benjamin Decker, of this city. Besides these, Mrs. Decker leaves seventeen grandchildren, three great-grandchildren, and two great-great-grandchildren. One son was given to the cause of the union, Lewis Decker, he dying on the battlefield in the Civil war.

The deceased lady was remarkably well preserved up to within a few days of her demise, both mentally and physically, aside from a slight deafness. She retained consciousness almost to the last. Her death was caused by heart trouble, from which she had suffered for a long time, and which her advanced age rendered it hard to alleviate.

She was a member of the First Methodist church in this city, having become allied with it many years ago. She was a true Christian woman and her friends in this city were numerous, who will be pained to hear of a death which, though not unexpected, will bring sorrow to many hearts. The funeral will be held at the house of Mrs. Griggs, Park avenue and Tenth avenue, on Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The Rev. A. F. Chaffee will preach the funeral sermon, and the interment will take place at Maplewood cemetery.

Vote for William Connel for congressman and sustain the administration which brought about good times.

THE PEOPLE'S LECTURE COURSE.
Rev. J. W. Phillips on "What I Laughed at in Palestine."

The People's Lecture course will open on Monday, November 19. "What I Laughed at in Palestine" will be the subject, and Rev. John W. Phillips, Ph. D., of Binghamton, N. Y., will be the lecturer. Other dates and lectures will be announced by the middle of next week. This course of lectures will be unique in many ways; it is for all the people, and within the reach of all since no fixed rates of admission will be charged. All the prominent denominations of the city will have a representative among the lecturers, and the talent will be the equal of any that have appeared in the high-priced lecture courses of recent years.

Getting Along Nicely.
Miss Ella Loftus, daughter of Daniel F. Loftus, of Sand street, who was operated upon for appendicitis Thursday afternoon at the Carbondale hospital, is resting comfortably, and last evening it was said, in response to an inquiry at the hospital, that she would recover unless unforeseen complications ensued.

Postponed One Night.
The Recherche Dancing class has changed the date of the evening for its second night from Wednesday to Thursday night of next week. On account of previous engagements of Prof. Pirth, who is the instructor, this has been made necessary. After next week, however, the regular class night for the members will be Wednesday.

Vote for John Copeland for prothonotary.

Delegates Elected.
At a meeting of the Epworth League of the Methodist Episcopal church, Misses Isabelle Stanton and Olive Pengelly and Mrs. A. F. Chaffee were elected as delegates to the Wyoming conference convention to be held in Orono, November 7 and 8. Rev. Chaffee of this city is secretary of the convention.

After Mitchell's Celebration.
The committee of arrangements for last Tuesday's great demonstration and welcome to President John Mitchell, of the United Mine Workers of America, met in the city hall at 8 o'clock last evening and made their reports and finished business.

Meetings Tonight.
Cambrian lodge, No. 58, Independent Order of Odd Fellows.
Division No. 13, Ancient Order of Hibernians.
Lily court, No. 350, Ancient Order Foresters of America.
Diamond lodge, No. 26, Shield of Honor.

A Little Better Last Night.
Raymond Tiffany, son of Ambrose E. Tiffany, the contractor, who has been very ill with typhoid fever, was able to sit up last night without assistance. Dr. John Niles is the attending physician.

A Case of Measles.
It was reported yesterday afternoon to the board of health that a child of George H. Moon, of 35 River street, had become ill with measles. The house was placarded last evening.

Organizations Meeting Tomorrow.
Knights of Father Mathew.
E. E. Hedrick lodge, No. 94, Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen.
Central Labor union.
Cigarmakers' union, No. 428.

Sad Tidings.
Word was received yesterday by Merritt O. Abbey and Meigs Abbey of this city, of the death of their grandmother, Mrs. Ruth Wilcox, at Salem, Wayne county.

A Miner Hurt.
Harvey Reynolds, a young unmarried man employed in the Northwest breakers, had his leg fractured there about 8 o'clock last evening. An ambulance was called and he was conveyed to the Carbondale hospital.

Vote for Edward B. Sturges for jury commissioner.

The Ghost Walks Today.
The city school teachers will be happy this morning, for each of them will receive a nice little envelope containing their month's pay for October.

A Bad Errand.
Mrs. Rollin Brand of North Main street went to Brooklyn, N. Y., Thursday, to attend the funeral of her sister. The funeral took place there yesterday.

Vote for a Republican state legislature.

A Coming Wedding.
Mr. John G. Bridget, the insurance man, of Dundaff street, and Miss Mary McDonald, of South Main street, will be married on Wednesday next. Both the parties are well and most favorably known and are very popular. The wedding will be quiet.

Picked Up in Passing.
Miss Nettie M. Bailey, of Salem avenue, is in Wilkes-Barre. Miss Nellie Gavin, of Jermyn, was a Carbondale visitor yesterday.

Miss Tessa Folkes, of Scranton, is visiting friends in Carbondale. The Misses Adams and Nettie Russell are visiting friends in Scranton.

Andrew Nelson, of Pike street, has recovered from his recent illness. Emmons L. Peck, a student at Bucknell, is home for a brief vacation.

John Connor will soon open a new plumbing shop at Belmont street.

Miss Lillian McClure, of Jermyn, is visiting her sister on Salem avenue. Mrs. George Foster, of Seventh avenue, is visiting relatives in Pittston.

Miss Mammie O'Malley, of Scranton, is the guest of Miss Mary Earley on Seventh avenue.

Mrs. Merritt O. Abbey, of North Terrace street, is entertaining her niece, Miss Pearl Giles, of White Oak.

Dr. Charles W. Colburn, the North Main street dentist, is entertaining his niece, whose home is in Scranton.

Charles Gibbs, of Belmont street, who has been making a stay with his parents on Park street, has returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Purdy, of Schenectady, N. Y., have returned home, after an extended visit in this city and vicinity.

Michael Nolan, of Pike street, who has been ill for the past two weeks, has returned to his work at the Hendricks Manufacturing company.

Rose Grier, of Carbondale, is visiting her brother, John Grier, Mammie Coughlin, of Sand street, on an errand. Adelaide Gillespie, of Church street, Winifred Walsh and Gertrude Barrett have returned home from Carbondale, after a week's sojourn among us. Joseph Gilhoel, of Carbondale, spent Monday evening with friends in Port Griffith—Pittston Gazette.

Vote for William R. Lewis for district attorney.

The Chrysanthemum Show.
Through the generosity of Hon. E. E. Hendrick the ladies of the Berean Baptist church will hold their second annual chrysanthemum sale and exhibition on Tuesday and Wednesday of next week. This has already come to be one of Carbondale's greatest events, and it is safe to predict that lovers of the beautiful will through the church during the forenoon and evenings of the exhibition.

The Young Men's Union.
The following calendar for the month has been posted on the Young Men's Union bulletin:
Nov. 6—Election returns will be received (members only).
Nov. 6—Dinner banquet for the G. A. B. Post 187.
Nov. 15—Entertainment.
Nov. 20—Ladies' night.
Nov. 27—Wednes night.

At the Berean Baptist Church.
At the morning service tomorrow in the Berean Baptist church Dr. Whalen will preach the second sermon in the series on "The Great Themes of Religion." His theme will be "Creation—What of the Record of Genesis?" At the evening service the subject will be "The Privilege and Responsibility of Being an American Citizen."

Vote for Emil Bonn for recorder.

JERMYN AND MAYFIELD.
The Jermyn borough council met in regular session last evening. Messrs. Scull and Stanton, of the Third ward, were absent. Mr. Dunn complained of the condition of Main street, in front of the Sweeney house, the proprietor of which has been put to considerable inconvenience and expense by the frequent flooding of his cellar after heavy rains. It was thought necessary to have the road raised at that point before the water could be carried away effectively, and on motion of Mr. Dunn the secretary was instructed to notify the Traction company to raise their road at that point, to plank the crossing and replank the road where it was made to the borough, on account of the condition of the Main street, in front of the Sweeney house, the proprietor of which has been put to considerable inconvenience and expense by the frequent flooding of his cellar after heavy rains. It was thought necessary to have the road raised at that point before the water could be carried away effectively, and on motion of Mr. Dunn the secretary was instructed to notify the Traction company to raise their road at that point, to plank the crossing and replank the road where it was made to the borough, on account of the condition of the Main street, in front of the Sweeney house, the proprietor of which has been put to considerable inconvenience and expense by the frequent flooding of his cellar after heavy rains. It was thought necessary to have the road raised at that point before the water could be carried away effectively, and on motion of Mr. Dunn the secretary was instructed to notify the Traction company to raise their road at that point, to plank the crossing and replank the road where it was made to the borough, on account of the condition of the Main street, in front of the Sweeney house, the proprietor of which has been put to considerable inconvenience and expense by the frequent flooding of his cellar after heavy rains. It was thought necessary to have the road raised at that point before the water could be carried away effectively, and on motion of Mr. Dunn the secretary was instructed to notify the Traction company to raise their road at that point, to plank the crossing and replank the road where it was made to the borough, on account of the condition of the Main street, in front of the Sweeney house, the proprietor of which has been put to considerable inconvenience and expense by the frequent flooding of his cellar after heavy rains. It was thought necessary to have the road raised at that point before the water could be carried away effectively, and on motion of Mr. Dunn the secretary was instructed to notify the Traction company to raise their road at that point, to plank the crossing and replank the road where it was made to the borough, on account of the condition of the Main street, in front of the Sweeney house, the proprietor of which has been put to considerable inconvenience and expense by the frequent flooding of his cellar after heavy rains. It was thought necessary to have the road raised at that point before the water could be carried away effectively, and on motion of Mr. Dunn the secretary was instructed to notify the Traction company to raise their road at that point, to plank the crossing and replank the road where it was made to the borough, on account of the condition of the Main street, in front of the Sweeney house, the proprietor of which has been put to considerable inconvenience and expense by the frequent flooding of his cellar after heavy rains. It was thought necessary to have the road raised at that point before the water could be carried away effectively, and on motion of Mr. Dunn the secretary was instructed to notify the Traction company to raise their road at that point, to plank the crossing and replank the road where it was made to the borough, on account of the condition of the Main street, in front of the Sweeney house, the proprietor of which has been put to considerable inconvenience and expense by the frequent flooding of his cellar after heavy rains. It was thought necessary to have the road raised at that point before the water could be carried away effectively, and on motion of Mr. Dunn the secretary was instructed to notify the Traction company to raise their road at that point, to plank the crossing and replank the road where it was made to the borough, on account of the condition of the Main street, in front of the Sweeney house, the proprietor of which has been put to considerable inconvenience and expense by the frequent flooding of his cellar after heavy rains. It was thought necessary to have the road raised at that point before the water could be carried away effectively, and on motion of Mr. Dunn the secretary was instructed to notify the Traction company to raise their road at that point, to plank the crossing and replank the road where it was made to the borough, on account of the condition of the Main street, in front of the Sweeney house, the proprietor of which has been put to considerable inconvenience and expense by the frequent flooding of his cellar after heavy rains. It was thought necessary to have the road raised at that point before the water could be carried away effectively, and on motion of Mr. Dunn the secretary was instructed to notify the Traction company to raise their road at that point, to plank the crossing and replank the road where it was made to the borough, on account of the condition of the Main street, in front of the Sweeney house, the proprietor of which has been put to considerable inconvenience and expense by the frequent flooding of his cellar after heavy rains. It was thought necessary to have the road raised at that point before the water could be carried away effectively, and on motion of Mr. Dunn the secretary was instructed to notify the Traction company to raise their road at that point, to plank the crossing and replank the road where it was made to the borough, on account of the condition of the Main street, in front of the Sweeney house, the proprietor of which has been put to considerable inconvenience and expense by the frequent flooding of his cellar after heavy rains. It was thought necessary to have the road raised at that point before the water could be carried away effectively, and on motion of Mr. Dunn the secretary was instructed to notify the Traction company to raise their road at that point, to plank the crossing and replank the road where it was made to the borough, on account of the condition of the Main street, in front of the Sweeney house, the proprietor of which has been put to considerable inconvenience and expense by the frequent flooding of his cellar after heavy rains. It was thought necessary to have the road raised at that point before the water could be carried away effectively, and on motion of Mr. Dunn the secretary was instructed to notify the Traction company to raise their road at that point, to plank the crossing and replank the road where it was made to the borough, on account of the condition of the Main street, in front of the Sweeney house, the proprietor of which has been put to considerable inconvenience and expense by the frequent flooding of his cellar after heavy rains. It was thought necessary to have the road raised at that point before the water could be carried away effectively, and on motion of Mr. Dunn the secretary was instructed to notify the Traction company to raise their road at that point, to plank the crossing and replank the road where it was made to the borough, on account of the condition of the Main street, in front of the Sweeney house, the proprietor of which has been put to considerable inconvenience and expense by the frequent flooding of his cellar after heavy rains. It was thought necessary to have the road raised at that point before the water could be carried away effectively, and on motion of Mr. Dunn the secretary was instructed to notify the Traction company to raise their road at that point, to plank the crossing and replank the road where it was made to the borough, on account of the condition of the Main street, in front of the Sweeney house, the proprietor of which has been put to considerable inconvenience and expense by the frequent flooding of his cellar after heavy rains. It was thought necessary to have the road raised at that point before the water could be carried away effectively, and on motion of Mr. Dunn the secretary was instructed to notify the Traction company to raise their road at that point, to plank the crossing and replank the road where it was made to the borough, on account of the condition of the Main street, in front of the Sweeney house, the proprietor of which has been put to considerable inconvenience and expense by the frequent flooding of his cellar after heavy rains. It was thought necessary to have the road raised at that point before the water could be carried away effectively, and on motion of Mr. Dunn the secretary was instructed to notify the Traction company to raise their road at that point, to plank the crossing and replank the road where it was made to the borough, on account of the condition of the Main street, in front of the Sweeney house, the proprietor of which has been put to considerable inconvenience and expense by the frequent flooding of his cellar after heavy rains. It was thought necessary to have the road raised at that point before the water could be carried away effectively, and on motion of Mr. Dunn the secretary was instructed to notify the Traction company to raise their road at that point, to plank the crossing and replank the road where it was made to the borough, on account of the condition of the Main street, in front of the Sweeney house, the proprietor of which has been put to considerable inconvenience and expense by the frequent flooding of his cellar after heavy rains. It was thought necessary to have the road raised at that point before the water could be carried away effectively, and on motion of Mr. Dunn the secretary was instructed to notify the Traction company to raise their road at that point, to plank the crossing and replank the road where it was made to the borough, on account of the condition of the Main street, in front of the Sweeney house, the proprietor of which has been put to considerable inconvenience and expense by the frequent flooding of his cellar after heavy rains. It was thought necessary to have the road raised at that point before the water could be carried away effectively, and on motion of Mr. Dunn the secretary was instructed to notify the Traction company to raise their road at that point, to plank the crossing and replank the road where it was made to the borough, on account of the condition of the Main street, in front of the Sweeney house, the proprietor of which has been put to considerable inconvenience and expense by the frequent flooding of his cellar after heavy rains. It was thought necessary to have the road raised at that point before the water could be carried away effectively, and on motion of Mr. Dunn the secretary was instructed to notify the Traction company to raise their road at that point, to plank the crossing and replank the road where it was made to the borough, on account of the condition of the Main street, in front of the Sweeney house, the proprietor of which has been put to considerable inconvenience and expense by the frequent flooding of his cellar after heavy rains. It was thought necessary to have the road raised at that point before the water could be carried away effectively, and on motion of Mr. Dunn the secretary was instructed to notify the Traction company to raise their road at that point, to plank the crossing and replank the road where it was made to the borough, on account of the condition of the Main street, in front of the Sweeney house, the proprietor of which has been put to considerable inconvenience and expense by the frequent flooding of his cellar after heavy rains. It was thought necessary to have the road raised at that point before the water could be carried away effectively, and on motion of Mr. Dunn the secretary was instructed to notify the Traction company to raise their road at that point, to plank the crossing and replank the road where it was made to the borough, on account of the condition of the Main street, in front of the Sweeney house, the proprietor of which has been put to considerable inconvenience and expense by the frequent flooding of his cellar after heavy rains. It was thought necessary to have the road raised at that point before the water could be carried away effectively, and on motion of Mr. Dunn the secretary was instructed to notify the Traction company to raise their road at that point, to plank the crossing and replank the road where it was made to the borough, on account of the condition of the Main street, in front of the Sweeney house, the proprietor of which has been put to considerable inconvenience and expense by the frequent flooding of his cellar after heavy rains. It was thought necessary to have the road raised at that point before the water could be carried away effectively, and on motion of Mr. Dunn the secretary was instructed to notify the Traction company to raise their road at that point, to plank the crossing and replank the road where it was made to the borough, on account of the condition of the Main street, in front of the Sweeney house, the proprietor of which has been put to considerable inconvenience and expense by the frequent flooding of his cellar after heavy rains. It was thought necessary to have the road raised at that point before the water could be carried away effectively, and on motion of Mr. Dunn the secretary was instructed to notify the Traction company to raise their road at that point, to plank the crossing and replank the road where it was made to the borough, on account of the condition of the Main street, in front of the Sweeney house, the proprietor of which has been put to considerable inconvenience and expense by the frequent flooding of his cellar after heavy rains. It was thought necessary to have the road raised at that point before the water could be carried away effectively, and on motion of Mr. Dunn the secretary was instructed to notify the Traction company to raise their road at that point, to plank the crossing and replank the road where it was made to the borough, on account of the condition of the Main street, in front of the Sweeney house, the proprietor of which has been put to considerable inconvenience and expense by the frequent flooding of his cellar after heavy rains. It was thought necessary to have the road raised at that point before the water could be carried away effectively, and on motion of Mr. Dunn the secretary was instructed to notify the Traction company to raise their road at that point, to plank the crossing and replank the road where it was made to the borough, on account of the condition of the Main street, in front of the Sweeney house, the proprietor of which has been put to considerable inconvenience and expense by the frequent flooding of his cellar after heavy rains. It was thought necessary to have the road raised at that point before the water could be carried away effectively, and on motion of Mr. Dunn the secretary was instructed to notify the Traction company to raise their road at that point, to plank the crossing and replank the road where it was made to the borough, on account of the condition of the Main street, in front of the Sweeney house, the proprietor of which has been put to considerable inconvenience and expense by the frequent flooding of his cellar after heavy rains. It was thought necessary to have the road raised at that point before the water could be carried away effectively, and on motion of Mr. Dunn the secretary was instructed to notify the Traction company to raise their road at that point, to plank the crossing and replank the road where it was made to the borough, on account of the condition of the Main street, in front of the Sweeney house, the proprietor of which has been put to considerable inconvenience and expense by the frequent flooding of his cellar after heavy rains. It was thought necessary to have the road raised at that point before the water could be carried away effectively, and on motion of Mr. Dunn the secretary was instructed to notify the Traction company to raise their road at that point, to plank the crossing and replank the road where it was made to the borough, on account of the condition of the Main street, in front of the Sweeney house, the proprietor of which has been put to considerable inconvenience and expense by the frequent flooding of his cellar after heavy rains. It was thought necessary to have the road raised at that point before the water could be carried away effectively, and on motion of Mr. Dunn the secretary was instructed to notify the Traction company to raise their road at that point, to plank the crossing and replank the road where it was made to the borough, on account of the condition of the Main street, in front of the Sweeney house, the proprietor of which has been put to considerable inconvenience and expense by the frequent flooding of his cellar after heavy rains. It was thought necessary to have the road raised at that point before the water could be carried away effectively, and on motion of Mr. Dunn the secretary was instructed to notify the Traction company to raise their road at that point, to plank the crossing and replank the road where it was made to the borough, on account of the condition of the Main street, in front of the Sweeney house, the proprietor of which has been put to considerable inconvenience and expense by the frequent flooding of his cellar after heavy rains. It was thought necessary to have the road raised at that point before the water could be carried away effectively, and on motion of Mr. Dunn the secretary was instructed to notify the Traction company to raise their road at that point, to plank the crossing and replank the road where it was made to the borough, on account of the condition of the Main street, in front of the Sweeney house, the proprietor of which has been put to considerable inconvenience and expense by the frequent flooding of his cellar after heavy rains. It was thought necessary to have the road raised at that point before the water could be carried away effectively, and on motion of Mr. Dunn the secretary was instructed to notify the Traction company to raise their road at that point, to plank the crossing and replank the road where it was made to the borough, on account of the condition of the Main street, in front of the Sweeney house, the proprietor of which has been put to considerable inconvenience and expense by the frequent flooding of his cellar after heavy rains. It was thought necessary to have the road raised at that point before the water could be carried away effectively, and on motion of Mr. Dunn the secretary was instructed to notify the Traction company to raise their road at that point, to plank the crossing and replank the road where it was made to the borough, on account of the condition of the Main street, in front of the Sweeney house, the proprietor of which has been put to considerable inconvenience and expense by the frequent flooding of his cellar after heavy rains. It was thought necessary to have the road raised at that point before the water could be carried away effectively, and on motion of Mr. Dunn the secretary was instructed to notify the Traction company to raise their road at that point, to plank the crossing and replank the road where it was made to the borough, on account of the condition of the Main street, in front of the Sweeney house, the proprietor of which has been put to considerable inconvenience and expense by the frequent flooding of his cellar after heavy rains. It was thought necessary to have the road raised at that point before the water could be carried away effectively, and on motion of Mr. Dunn the secretary was instructed to notify the Traction company to raise their road at that point, to plank the crossing and replank the road where it was made to the borough, on account of the condition of the Main street, in front of the Sweeney house, the proprietor of which has been put to considerable inconvenience and expense by the frequent flooding of his cellar after heavy rains. It was thought necessary to have the road raised at that point before the water could be carried away effectively, and on motion of Mr. Dunn the secretary was instructed to notify the Traction company to raise their road at that point, to plank the crossing and replank the road where it was made to the borough, on account of the condition of the Main street, in front of the Sweeney house, the proprietor of which has been put to considerable inconvenience and expense by the frequent flooding of his cellar after heavy rains. It was thought necessary to have the road raised at that point before the water could be carried away effectively, and on motion of Mr. Dunn the secretary was instructed to notify the Traction company to raise their road at that point, to plank the crossing and replank the road where it was made to the borough, on account of the condition of the Main street, in front of the Sweeney house, the proprietor of which has been put to considerable inconvenience and expense by the frequent flooding of his cellar after heavy rains. It was thought necessary to have the road raised at that point before the water could be carried away effectively, and on motion of Mr. Dunn the secretary was instructed to notify the Traction company to raise their road at that point, to plank the crossing and replank the road where it was made to the borough, on account of the condition of the Main street, in front of the Sweeney house, the proprietor of which has been put to considerable inconvenience and expense by the frequent flooding of his cellar after heavy rains. It was thought necessary to have the road raised at that point before the water could be carried away effectively, and on motion of Mr. Dunn the secretary was instructed to notify the Traction company to raise their road at that point, to plank the crossing and replank the road where it was made to the borough, on account of the condition of the Main street, in front of the Sweeney house, the proprietor of which has been put to considerable inconvenience and expense by the frequent flooding of his cellar after heavy rains. It was thought necessary to have the road raised at that point before the water could be carried away effectively, and on motion of Mr. Dunn the secretary was instructed to notify the Traction company to raise their road at that point, to plank the crossing and replank the road where it was made to the borough, on account of the condition of the Main street, in front of the Sweeney house, the proprietor of which has been put to considerable inconvenience and expense by the frequent flooding of his cellar after heavy rains. It was thought necessary to have the road raised at that point before the water could be carried away effectively, and on motion of Mr. Dunn the secretary was instructed to notify the Traction company to raise their road at that point, to plank the crossing and replank the road where it was made to the borough, on account of the condition of the Main street, in front of the Sweeney house, the proprietor of which has been put to considerable inconvenience and expense by the frequent flooding of his cellar after heavy rains. It was thought necessary to have the road raised at that point before the water could be carried away effectively, and on motion of Mr. Dunn the secretary was instructed to notify the Traction company to raise their road at that point, to plank the crossing and replank the road where it was made to the borough, on account of the condition of the Main street, in front of the Sweeney house, the proprietor of which has been put to considerable inconvenience and expense by the frequent flooding of his cellar after heavy rains. It was thought necessary to have the road raised at that point before the water could be carried away effectively, and on motion of Mr. Dunn the secretary was instructed to notify the Traction company to raise their road at that point, to plank the crossing and replank the road where it was made to the borough, on account of the condition of the Main street, in front of the Sweeney house, the proprietor of which has been put to considerable inconvenience and expense by the frequent flooding of his cellar after heavy rains. It was thought necessary to have the road raised at that point before the water could be carried away effectively, and on motion of Mr. Dunn the secretary was instructed to notify the Traction company to raise their road at that point, to plank the crossing and replank the road where it was made to the borough, on account of the condition of the Main street, in front of the Sweeney house, the proprietor of which has been put to considerable inconvenience and expense by the frequent flooding of his cellar after heavy rains. It was thought necessary to have the road raised at that point before the water could be carried away effectively, and on motion of Mr. Dunn the secretary was instructed to notify the Traction company to raise their road at that point, to plank the crossing and replank the road where it was made to the borough, on account of the condition of the Main street, in front of the Sweeney house, the proprietor of which has been put to considerable inconvenience and expense by the frequent flooding of his cellar after heavy rains. It was thought necessary to have the road raised at that point before the water could be carried away effectively, and on motion of Mr. Dunn the secretary was instructed to notify the Traction company to raise their road at that point, to plank the crossing and replank the road where it was made to the borough, on account of the condition of the Main street, in front of the Sweeney house, the proprietor of which has been put to considerable inconvenience and expense by the frequent flooding of his cellar after heavy rains. It was thought necessary to have the road raised at that point before the water could be carried away effectively, and on motion of Mr. Dunn the secretary was instructed to notify the Traction company to raise their road at that point, to plank the crossing and replank the road where it was made to the borough, on account of the condition of the Main street, in front of the Sweeney house, the proprietor of which has been put to considerable inconvenience and expense by the frequent flooding of his cellar after heavy rains. It was thought necessary to have the road raised at that point before the water could be carried away effectively, and on motion of Mr. Dunn the secretary was instructed to notify the Traction company to raise their road at that point, to plank the crossing and replank the road where it was made to the borough, on account of the condition of the Main street, in front of the Sweeney house, the proprietor of which has been put to considerable inconvenience and expense by the frequent flooding of his cellar after heavy rains. It was thought necessary to have the road raised at that point before the water could be carried away effectively, and on motion of Mr. Dunn the secretary was instructed to notify the Traction company to raise their road at that point, to plank the crossing and replank the road where it was made to the borough, on account of the condition of the Main street, in front of the Sweeney house, the proprietor of which has been put to considerable inconvenience and expense by the frequent flooding of his cellar after heavy rains. It was thought necessary to have the road raised at that point before the water could be carried away effectively, and on motion of Mr. Dunn the secretary was instructed to notify the Traction company to raise their road at that point, to plank the crossing and replank the road where it was made to the borough, on account of the condition of the Main street, in front of the Sweeney house, the proprietor of which has been put to considerable inconvenience and expense by the frequent flooding of his cellar after heavy rains. It was thought necessary to have the road raised at that point before the water could be carried away effectively, and on motion of Mr. Dunn the secretary was instructed to notify the Traction company to raise their road at that point, to plank the crossing and replank the road where it was made to the borough, on account of the condition of the Main street, in front of the Sweeney house, the proprietor of which has been put to considerable inconvenience and expense by the frequent flooding of his cellar after heavy rains. It was thought necessary to have the road raised at that point before the water could be carried away effectively, and on motion of Mr. Dunn the secretary was instructed to notify the Traction company to raise their road at that point, to plank the crossing and replank the road where it was made to the borough, on account of the condition of the Main street, in front of the Sweeney house, the proprietor of which has been put to considerable inconvenience and expense by the frequent flooding of his cellar after heavy rains. It was thought necessary to have the road raised at that point before the water could be carried away effectively, and on motion of Mr. Dunn the secretary was instructed to notify the Traction company to raise their road at that point, to plank the crossing and replank the road where it was made to the borough, on account of the condition of the Main street, in front of the Sweeney house, the proprietor of which has been put to considerable inconvenience and expense by the frequent flooding of his cellar after heavy rains. It was thought necessary to have the road raised at that point before the water could be carried away effectively, and on motion of Mr. Dunn the secretary was instructed to notify the Traction company to raise their road at that point, to plank the crossing and replank the road where it was made to the borough, on account of the condition of the Main street, in front of the Sweeney house, the proprietor of which has been put to considerable inconvenience and expense by the frequent flooding of his cellar after heavy rains. It was thought necessary to have the road raised at that point before the water could be carried away effectively, and on motion of Mr. Dunn the secretary was instructed to notify the Traction company to raise their road at that point, to plank the crossing and replank the road where it was made to the borough, on account of the condition of the Main street, in front of the Sweeney house, the proprietor of which has been put to considerable inconvenience and expense by the frequent flooding of his cellar after heavy rains. It was thought necessary to have the road raised at that point before the water could be carried away effectively, and on motion of Mr. Dunn the secretary was instructed to notify the Traction company to raise their road at that point, to plank the crossing and replank the road where it was made to the borough, on account of the condition of the Main street, in front of the Sweeney house, the proprietor of which has been put to considerable inconvenience and expense by the frequent flooding of his cellar after heavy rains. It was thought necessary to have the road raised at that point before the water could be carried away effectively, and on motion of Mr. Dunn the secretary was instructed to notify the Traction company to raise their road at that point, to plank the crossing and replank the road where it was made to the borough, on account of the condition of the Main street, in front of the Sweeney house, the proprietor of which has been put to considerable inconvenience and expense by the frequent flooding of his cellar after heavy rains. It was thought necessary to have the road raised at that point before the water could be carried away effectively, and on motion of Mr. Dunn the secretary was instructed to notify the Traction company to raise their road at that point, to plank the crossing and replank the road where it was made to the borough, on account of the condition of the Main street, in front of the Sweeney house, the proprietor of which has been put to considerable inconvenience and expense by the frequent flooding of his cellar after heavy rains. It was thought necessary to have the road raised at that point before the water could be carried away effectively, and on motion of Mr. Dunn the secretary was instructed to notify the Traction company to raise their road at that point, to plank the crossing and replank the road where it was made to the borough, on account of the condition of the Main street, in front of the Sweeney house, the proprietor of which has been put to considerable inconvenience and expense by the frequent flooding of his cellar after heavy rains. It was thought necessary to have the road raised at that point before the water could be carried away effectively, and on motion of Mr. Dunn the secretary was instructed to notify the Traction company to raise their road at that point, to plank the crossing and replank the road where it was made to the borough, on account of the condition of the Main street, in front of the Sweeney house, the proprietor of which has been put to considerable inconvenience and expense by the frequent flooding of his cellar after heavy rains. It was thought necessary to have the road raised at that point before the water could be carried away effectively, and on motion of Mr. Dunn the secretary was instructed to notify the Traction company to raise their road at that point, to plank the crossing and replank the road where it was made to the borough, on account of the condition of the Main street, in front of the Sweeney house, the proprietor of which has been put to considerable inconvenience and expense by the frequent flooding of his cellar after heavy rains. It was thought necessary to have the road raised at that point before the water could be carried away effectively, and on motion of Mr. Dunn the secretary was instructed to notify the Traction company to raise their road at that point, to plank the crossing and replank the road where it was made to the borough, on account of the condition of the Main street, in front of the Sweeney house, the proprietor of which has been put to considerable inconvenience and expense by the frequent flooding of his cellar after heavy rains. It was thought necessary to have the road raised at that point before the water could be carried away effectively, and on motion of Mr. Dunn the secretary was instructed to notify the Traction company to raise their road at that point, to plank the crossing and replank the road where it was made to the borough, on account of the condition of the Main street, in front of the Sweeney house, the proprietor of which has been put to considerable inconvenience and expense by the frequent flooding of his cellar after heavy rains. It was thought necessary to have the road raised at that point before the water could be carried away effectively, and on motion of Mr. Dunn the secretary was instructed to notify the Traction company to raise their road at that point, to plank the crossing and replank the road where it was made to the borough, on account of the condition of the Main street, in front of the Sweeney house, the proprietor of which has been put to considerable inconvenience and expense by the frequent flooding of his cellar after heavy rains. It was thought necessary to have the road raised at that point before the water could be carried away effectively, and on motion of Mr. Dunn the secretary was instructed to notify the Traction company to raise their road at that point, to plank the crossing and replank the road where it was made to the borough, on account of the condition of the Main street, in front of the Sweeney house, the proprietor of which has been put to considerable inconvenience and expense by the frequent flooding of his cellar after heavy rains. It was thought necessary to have the road raised at that point before the water could be carried away effectively, and on motion of Mr. Dunn the secretary was instructed to notify the Traction company to raise their road at that point, to plank the crossing and replank the road where it was made to the borough, on account of the condition of the Main street, in front of the Sweeney house, the proprietor of which has been put to considerable inconvenience and expense by the frequent flooding of his cellar after heavy rains. It was thought necessary to have the road raised at that point before the water could be carried away effectively, and on motion of Mr. Dunn the secretary was instructed